Remember the Poor

There are few objects more important for public consideration in a young and growing State than early and adequate provision for its future poor. At a time like the present in Oregon, when land is cheap and the several communities are enjoying such a degree of uninterrupted prosperity, it is an easy matter for each county to secure the title to from one hundred and sixty to one thousand acres of good farming land, to be devoted to none other than eleemosynary purposes. The appropriation of a small sum of money to this end now would secure to our citizens in the near future perfect immunity from taxation on account of their poor, when the State becomes more densely populated and the value of real estate thereby enhanced. The system, wherever it has been properly pursued, even with all the disadvantages of comparatively much later adoption, at the East, is found to work admirably, in some instances netting a revenue for expenditure in constructing additional buildings, beautifying grounds, and providing such improvements from time to time as experience suggests. In a country like our own, where the pursuits are so diversified with an erratic and to a great extent homeless population, where so many endure untold hardships and expose themselves to such complications of disease in their gold seekings, where speculation is rife and many princely fortunes are amassed, there must be a corresponding sum of sickness and destitution. Hitherto, the generosity of the masses, in the absence of established houses of refuge for the poor, has never been appealed to in vain. But as society becomes permanent, and each community is invested with all the municipal authorities and powers which characterize the subdivisions of a State, each corporation will be called upon to provide for its own indigent, and no good citizen would feel gratified at a neighborhood inability to respond to such call with consummate humanity. Our preparation for future exigencies in this regard should be commensurate with our anticipation of Oregon's future greatness in all the essentials of prosperity and happiness. The State authorities should anticipate the demand for eligible grounds on which to locate those asylums inevitable among us as a Christian people before the heavy hand of age is laid upon some of our children of to-day. The blind, the deaf and dumb, the lunatic and idiot, the infirm, the aged, the orphan, the unfortunate of every grade and phase in life, will present themselves for care at the expense of the State, and we should secure ample grounds for such purposes while they are cheap, to be used as required. Once established, these institutions, whether town, county or State, with rare and imperative exceptions, are rendered self sustaining by leasing them out to honorable parties, who derive the benefits accruing from cultivation of the attached lands as payment for the care taken of the public charge. We earnestly call upon our fellow citizens throughout the State to inaugurate such steps as shall ultimately secure to them all that may be needed for the kindliest offices to those whom Providence shall place under their sacred charge.

THE "ROAD GUARD" AGAIN.—It will remembered that Major N. H. McLean, Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General, and Chief Mustering Officer for this District, declined mustering in the officers and men composing the Canyon City Road Guard, not being authorized so to do by any instructions from the War Department. Desirous of furthering the interests of our State while still in the conscientious discharge of his onerous duties, he telegraphed immediately, under date of June 10th, for the sanction of the Department and requesting an early answer. The question must have been deemed an important one in Washington, as no response thereto was made until the 28th, when an answer from the War Department, through Provost Marshal General Fry, was telegraphed to Major McLean, authorizing the muster. Although the matter had promise of speedy arrangement through orders from General Wright to General Alvord, it is but justice to Major McLean to state that during his authority from Washington with no discretionary powers he could not act officially in the premises until [illegible].

"VALANDIGHAM.—The Gold Hill News does not seem to entertain a very favorable opinion of this pet of the Copperheads. Speaking of the return of the traitor to Ohio, it says: "If he is not arrested and hung, the Government is trifling with the people."

A salute was fired in [illegible] City, on receipt of the news of the nomination of Lincoln and Johnson.

Letter from Placerville

[FROM OUR [illegible] CORRESPONDENT.]

PLACERVILLE, [illegible]
June 11 [illegible]

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

The past week has been one that even Oregon itself would be proud of in her early fall. We have had storm and sunshine alternately, and last night when we were visited by a little snow storm which even now—in June—is [illegible] with a beautiful [illegible] to be brought [illegible] clothing [illegible].

This section is comparatively depopulated of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] results for the trip [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] see the [illegible].

A [illegible] trying in the waters of the [illegible] accomplishment [illegible] end the city to be [illegible].

Oregon must look well to the matter of furnishing the basin with her supplies [illegible] the avenue of trade. The [illegible] is no doubt now of the feasibility of [illegible] from California to this place. The pioneer [illegible] days from Red Bluff [illegible] freight for [illegible] [illegible] was but first [illegible] themselves. Forty [illegible] the Sacramento [illegible] seven days [illegible] Virginia City and Owyhee mines, with promises to do even better. The excitement [illegible] the Virginia Enterprise is about to join in with the Associated Press of California [illegible] news [illegible] since the completion of the telegraph [illegible] for us and we Oregonians would [illegible] to aid in sustaining its present [illegible]. Oregon can and must supply the [illegible] bulk of its necessaries [illegible] their freight [illegible] in [illegible].

The Boise Consolidated Gold and Silver Mining Company is not the myth that some of the [illegible] stockholders would [illegible]. Mr. [illegible] the agent, assured me the prospects were flattering, so much so that instead of putting up arrastras as was first intended he immediately returned to San Francisco for a mill, taking with him a [illegible] eye opener for the [illegible]. The [illegible] and [illegible] Portland capital is pretty well represented in the Company, and I think it a good thing. The other companies in this basin are at work representing and developing their ledges, but they are working under numerous disadvantages, owing to the [illegible] attention paid to the Owyhee section at our expense, time and money, however, is bound to work miracles, and it is to be hoped that we will [illegible].

During the last week the Tax Collector has been around collecting the territorial and poll taxes, with indifferent results. There appears to be a general repugnance among our population to pay taxes. When the collector would be seen coming the boys who owned no [illegible] poll tax would [illegible] stampede for the brush, and the Collector would be obliged to beat them up and when in many cases they refused their names he was compelled to have summary proceedings [illegible] teaching them a costly lesson by way of experience. One man refused to give in his property to the Collector, or to pay his poll tax, telling him to do his best: he was arrested and searched when a purse of $400 was brought to sight when the Assessor garnished it, and having assessed him for some $5,000 more than he was worth, they succeeded in getting the whole amount and still leaving him in debt.

The Democratic County Convention meets to-morrow and its proceedings will form a part of my next letter.

We are in a state of suspense here to hear the denouement of the "On to Richmond" movement which Grant has organized. Our last news places him within seven miles of Richmond, and when Greek meets Greek we expect the tug of war.

CRAYON

MEASURING LAND.—Persons often find it necessary to measure the number of acres in a lot, not for the purpose of sale, but for business. This can be done by any person with a pole or line that measures rods, or by a little practice, one can learn to step a rod at five paces, which will do very well for ordinary farm work. Ascertain the number of rods in width and length of a lot you wish to measure, and multiply the one by the other, and divide by 160, and you have the number of acres, as 160 square rods make a square acre. If you wish to lay off one acre, measure 13 rods on each side. This lacks only a rod full measure.

SERVICE OF A VETERAN METHODIST PREACHER.—The Rev. Peter Cartwright, of Illinois Conference, in a communication to the Central Christian Advocate, reports over two hundred conversions and accessions to his district since Conference, and adds:

"I am in my seventy-ninth year, and this is my sixtieth year of regular traveling life as a preacher of the M. E. Church, yet I am able to preach from two to four times every week. For forty-five years the appointing powers have seen proper to put me in charge of districts as presiding elder, twelve times the annual conference have seen proper to elect me as a delegate to our General Conferences."

THE STEAMSHIP GOLDEN AGE SAFE!—The announcement by telegraph last evening of the safe arrival at San Francisco of the steamship Golden Age, was received by our citizens with loud expressions of joy. Each twenty-four hours since the ship was first reported as overdue, apprehension regarding her fate have increased until yesterday the most gloomy bodings prevailed. We hope, however, that the fears regarding her, so justly excited, will arouse the steamship owners to renewed precautions against surprise by fillibusters on shipboard, so that in future there will be less real ground to provoke this apprehension.

Major Addison Garland, Commandant of Marines at Mare Island Navy Yard, California, died on the 20th inst. He had been in the service thirty years, and was on board the steamship Ariel when she was taken by the pirate Semmes and he put under parole, from which he was subsequently released by exchange.

San Marino, a little republic in Italy, between the Appenines the P[illegible] and the Adriatic, is the oldest republic in the world. It was founded more than fourteen hundred years ago. Its territory is only [illegible] in circumference, and its population [illegible] thousand.

Colonel John Harris, the Commandant of the United States Marine Corps, died at Washington on the 14th ult. Col. Harris was one of the old line of officers, and was a strict disciplinarian, an [illegible] and able officer.

The balance in the California State Treasury, June 21st, 1864, summing up the different funds, amount to $[illegible].

Active steps are being taken in all parts of the State of California for a grand celebration of the coming Fourth of July.

FIGHT [illegible] OF THE CHICKAHOMINY.

[illegible] June 16th.—The Herald's correspondent with the Second corps, gives the following [illegible] [illegible] the heights on the opposite side. He [illegible] delight [illegible] portion near by. [illegible] fell by Crawford's, (Pennsylvania [illegible]). A portion [illegible] cavalry was [illegible] Turner's [illegible] White Oak Swamp [illegible] South [illegible] bridge and [illegible] Bragg [illegible] with [illegible] [illegible] Lyle's brigade went [illegible] the 1st brigade followed by [illegible] the rebels [illegible] McCullough's army, had placed three cannon [illegible] which they kept up a vigorous [illegible] objects were to be gained to hold the Long Bridge [illegible] and to silence the guns of these redoubts and to keep possession of the White Oak Swamp Bridge. Barnes' battery, 1st N. Y. was [illegible] to command the bridge and prevent the enemy from crossing [illegible]. Mean two other batteries directed their fire on these redoubts and the counter cannonading was heavy and furious for some time. Our cavalry got out ammunition and at the same time were heavily pressed and compelled to fall back with heavy [illegible] in considerable confusion, working through the infantry lines. The infantry, notwithstanding the cavalry panic, stood their ground and [illegible] the pursuing cavalry severely as they came within musket range. The enemy's cavalry, numbering three thousand, then fell back and did not [illegible] themselves again. From this time the fighting was between Crawford's division and the enemy's infantry, which arrived at half past [illegible]. Brisk skirmishing ensued, and the enemy made an attack but were so decisively repulsed that they did not venture to repeat it.

DETAILS OF THE OPERATIONS AGAINST PETERSBURG.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The Tribune's special dispatch, dated headquarters Army of the Potomac near Petersburg Friday morning (17th) says: Our advance is within a half a mile of Petersburg. Portions of Lee's army commenced arriving at Petersburg on Wednesday night (15th) only a few hours after the arrival of Hancock with the second corps. The City Point railroad is now in our possession. The Norfolk and the Petersburg road is commanded by our troops. The eighteenth corps which landed at Bermuda Hundred crossing the Appomattox on pontoons laid four miles above its mouth, penetrated southward to within about four miles of the town without encountering any opposition. Here skirmishing commenced and our line steadily pushed forward, drove back the pickets of the enemy, who took a position in their outer defences. These defences were immediately charged by Hinks' negro division, with most splendid gallantry the enemy put to flight, and two guns and considerable number of prisoners captured. The works were held until the arrival of Hancock, at half past five on Wednesday, (16th). A reconnoissance for the purpose of ascertaining the exact position was made by Hancock, and considerable skirmishing ensued. Only two divisions of the second corps—Birney's and Gibbons'—reached the field on Wednesday night. Barlow, who pursued another road bringing up the rear, came up at six o'clock yesterday (Thursday) morning. The divisions of Birney and Gibbons were deployed in line of battle, when their proximity to the rebels was discovered. Our troops [illegible] on the field, Birney occupying the left of the line and Gibbons the right. On Barlow's arrival in the morning he was ordered into position on the left of Birney.

Between five and six o'clock yesterday morning (16th) the enemy opened a heavy artillery fire on our line enfilading it with batteries posted on our left, and rendering an advance or the occupation of a position in the rear immediately necessary. Accordingly an advance of the 2d and 18th corps was ordered by Hancock, who, in the absence of [illegible], took command of both corps. The advance was highly successful, several lines of the rebel works being carried at the point of the bayonet, a number of redoubts of great strength being occupied, 16 guns being taken and turned upon the enemy by the 18th corps. Col. Egan's brigade of Birney's division led a charge of the 2d corps, and gallantly drove the enemy from his works capturing at the same time formidable redoubts and with Dwight's and Gillis' batteries completely silencing the rebel artillery on our left. About one o'clock P. M., dispositions for a final charge upon the enemy's last line were made. At this time Colonel Egan was severely if not mortally wounded in the spine, and the attack was temporarily postponed.

At six o'clock last night another charge was made by the Second Corps and an advanced position assumed and maintained. The line thus occupied was immediately rendered secure by the construction of earthworks. At this time it is impossible to ascertain the extent of our losses, but 1,000 will probably cover the total casualties. It is to be regretted that our advance was not pushed forward on Wednesday afternoon, (15th,) as prisoners concur in the statement that Wise's brigade—alone held the town until late in the evening, when Lee's troops commenced arriving. Portions of his army marched from Malvern Hill, crossing the James on pontoons about Fort Darling, while many were dispatched by the Petersburg railroad. Our line is now formed, facing the city from the east of south, partly encircling it and extends across the City Point railroad southward to the vicinity of the Petersburg and Norfolk railroad. Burnside holds the left of our line, Hancock the center and Smith the right.

RETALIATION ON REBELS.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Gen. Foster reports that he had been informed by rebel prisoner at Charleston that five of our general officers in the hands of the enemy are kept under our fire. As a retaliation, he asks to have a like number of rebel officers of the same rank under the rebel fire. Stanton has given permission.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR OF GEN. BUTLER.

The Times' special dispatch says: We have a report of a small [illegible] of Butler's forces in the Richmond and Petersburg [illegible] making a brilliant fight. [illegible] 40 [illegible] advanced three or four miles directly in the [illegible] [illegible] the men were destroying the railroad [illegible] of rebels came down and were [illegible] until the work was completed, when they retired.

LYING IN STATE.—On the 12th of June, Yon Koon, a Chinese doctor of some celebrity in Stockton, was thrown from a buggy in that city, and soon after the accident died of the injuries he had received. The Stockton Independent of the 14th says:

More than a hundred persons visited the medical office of Yon Koon yesterday to see the body lying in state and satisfy the cravings of curiosity by observing the pomp and heathen rites of the living heathen. [illegible] the body [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] all that [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] bits of chop sticks and scraps of paper and trinkets of every imaginary shape and [illegible] any amount of other jimcracks gathered [illegible] the chamber of death. FREEDMAN'S RELIEF ASSOCIATION.—The meeting held last evening by the friends of the Nat[illegible] Freedman's Relief Association, at the M. E. Church in this city, was organized by the election of Henry Failing [illegible] Governor Gibbs made an excellent speech in behalf of the objects of the Association, at the close of which Mr. Brace [illegible] Agent of the parent society, stated the purposes [illegible] and aims of the organization, together with what had already been accomplished, in the way of relieving the suffering contrabands, as they arrive within the Union lines. Eloquent addresses were also delivered by Hon. J. H. Mitchell and Judge Williams in furtherance of the objects of the Association. We are informed that a club of our citizens have joined together for the purpose of aiding Mr. Brackett in all that is necessary to a complete canvass of the State, so that all the funds which may be contributed can be applied directly to the objects of relief. The collections taken up last evening amounted to $240 in currency, and $115 in coin. Some resolutions were adopted which were not furnished us for publication.

PREPARING FOR THE FOURTH.—The Volunteer and State Militia living in Portland are perfecting their arrangements for a turn out on the Fourth of July. Their intention was for a parade on that day in Portland, but we understand the citizens of Vancouver have extended invitations to all Companies to join in celebrating with them. We have not been informed as to whether they will accept. Captain Turnbull has chartered the steamer Senator for a trip to Vancouver on that day, placing the fare at $1, for a ride over and back, leaving Portland at 8 o'clock A. M. Those who wish to attend the Sanitary Ball in the evening, have the privilege of returning on the steamer Senator, free of charge the next day. The citizens of Astoria, are also preparing for a display of fire works in the evening of the Fourth, and as an inducement for persons who wish to visit that section, Captain Holman has put the passage at half rates for Monday, and the return on Tuesday.

A MORNING SCENE.—A lovely sight was presented to all who were out early enough yesterday morning to witness it, at about four o'clock. The sun had just commenced to roll its majestic round, the moon stood full overhead, the river was covered with a dense fog that ascended and passed above the city [illegible] the [illegible], a dark gloominess appeared to [illegible] in the neighborhood of Mount Robinson while the rays of the morning, as they peered through the pure ethereal, formed by the color of the sun and clouds, all blended harmoniously to make a lovely picture of nature, such as is rarely to be seen. The [illegible] of the morning Carrier and the return of the weary Printer to his home, were gladdened at the sight.

ESCAPE OF BUCKHART.—The man Charles Buckhart, who received a penal fine of $500, to stand committed until it was paid, in consequence of his inhuman treatment of the child Flora Steele, has effected his escape from the county jail. He has probably made it effectual, and under the circumstances [illegible] just as well, for in all human probability [illegible] be able to pay the amount. [illegible] given for the appearance of his wife, [illegible] term of the Circuit Court, is safe, and [illegible] the county together, the only consolation derived from the matter, to "the people of the State of Oregon" is, that the orphan has [illegible] home.

[illegible].—When the city officers were [illegible] straggling Indians recently [illegible] to a reservation in Washington [illegible] which permits them to run among [illegible] officer, on Front street, [illegible] cost for two bits. His ap[illegible] must have been that he [illegible] was providing the [illegible] for charity [illegible] found out that he had struck the wrong [illegible].

[illegible].—A second hand thresh[illegible] power, and all the attach[illegible] from a San Francisco vessel [illegible]. We understand it hails from one [illegible] counties of California, [illegible] by the drouth, and is [illegible] with a view of seeking em[illegible] have plenty of [illegible] Oregon, but for the [illegible] nothing to do. So far [illegible] the grain crops of our [illegible] condition.

TABLEAUX VIVANTS.—This evening there will be a second [illegible] of living pictures at the Willamette [illegible] arrangements and appointments [illegible] and the first tableaux will [illegible] Feast or The Writing on the Wall. The recent exhibition of this kind at Willamette Theatre, was witnessed by a house full of people [illegible] we understand the performers of to-night, are some of whom were engaged on the former occasion.

A NEW TRADE.—The steamer John H Couch had in tow, on her arrival yesterday morning a large flat boat from Kathlamet, loaded with eighty cords of hemlock bark for some one of our tanneries. We understand [illegible] but the beginning of what promises to be a lucrative trade, 500 cords more are under contract, to come from the same source. The advantages of hemlock, over other kinds of bark, for the purposes of tanning leather, are numerous, and at once recommend it to use.

DROWNED.—By the arrival of the steamer John H Couch from Astoria, we have particulars of the drowning of a man by the name of Hogeland, while attempting to pass from Astoria to Skipanon creek, on Saturday last, in a skiff which was upset. The deceased was a shoemaker by trade and had quite recently engaged in the tanning business at Skipanon creek, with a very favorable prospect of success. He leaves no relatives that are known of.

NEW BUGGIES.—A large number of buggies have been imported into Oregon during the present season for sale. Some of them are second hand, but the majority of them are new. We observed seventeen first class ones by the arrival of the bark Jane A. Falkinburg. Seven of these are for J. A. Starkey, of Salem, and the balance are for other parts of the State. We hope to see the Oregon roads generally, adapted to the use of such conveyances.

EDITOR OF THE PACIFIC CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.—Among the appointments made by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which met in Philadelphia early in May, we notice as editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, of this city, the name of Rev. H. C. Benson.

SALE OF AMERICAN FLAGS.—The sale of flags at Richardson's Auction Rooms yesterday, resulted in the disposal of 4 very fine new ones. One was bid off at $40, for F. R. Hill, Roseburg. The remaining three were purchased by parties in this city, at $35, $18, and $10, respectively.

THE ESCAPED CONVICTS.—Lewis Walton and John Martin, have not yet been captured. A description of them appears in our advertising columns this morning.

BOISE EXPRESS.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt arrived from the Cascades last evening, bringing a heavy treasure, a Boise express, and about eighty passengers.

STATE STATIONERY.—The contract for furnishing the State with stationery, was let to Messrs. J. L. Parrish & Co., of this city, theirs being the only proposal received by Secretary May.

WATER FOUNTAINS.—Mr. C. H. Myers has received a variety of jets for water fountains, some of which are novel—all pretty. They are exhibited at his place on First street, almost every evening.

SHEEP FOR VANCOUVER.—Yesterday the steamer Vancouver took in tow from this place a scow loaded with 200 fat sheep for slaughter in Vancouver.

WACONDA.—Messrs. Dodge and Hayward gave a pleasing entertainment to a large and appreciative audience, at Waconda, on Tuesday evening.

THE LAST DAY'S GRACE.—Collector Graves has given an important notice, in another column.

The sun had just commenced to roll its majestic round, the moon stood full overhead, the river was covered with a dense fog, that ascended and passed above the city to the hills beyond; a dark gloominess appeared to the south-west in the neighborhood of Mount Robinson, while the rays of the morning, as they peered through the purple ethereal, formed by the color of the sun and clouds, all blended harmoniously to make a lovely picture of nature, such as is rarely to be seen. The plodding of the morning Carrier, and the return of the weary Printer to his home, were gladdened at the sight.

He has probably made it effectual, and under the circumstances it is about as well, for in all human probability he would never be able to pay the amount. The security given for the appearance of his wife, at the next term of the Circuit Court, is safe, and should they leave the county together, the only consolation to be derived from the matter, to "the people of the State of Oregon" is, that the orphan has secured a home.

An Incident.—When the city officers were engaged in collecting straggling Indians, recently a burly siwash, belonging to a reservation in Washington Territory, which permits them to run among us, walked up to the Chief officer, on Front street, and asked in his own dialect for two bits. His appreciation of the Marshal must have been that he was a generous man, and that he was providing the Indians with lodging and muck a muck for charity sake. The Indian soon found out that he had struck the wrong chord.

Seeking Employment.—A second hand threshing machine, with horse-power, and all the attachments, was landed in this city, from a San Francisco vessel on Monday. We understand it hails from one of the grain growing counties of California, where the crops have failed by the drouth, and is brought "up the coast" with a view of seeking employment among our farmers. We have plenty of good machines of this class in Oregon, but for the benefit of all, we hope it may find something to do. So far as we have been able to learn the grain crops of our State are in fine condition.

Tableaux Vivants.—This evening there will be a second presentation of living pictures at the Willamette Theatre. The arrangements and appointments are by amateur artists, and the first tableaux will represent Belshazzar's Feast, or: The Writing on the Wall. The recent exhibition of this kind at Willamette Theatre, was witnessed by a house full of people, and we understand the performers of to-night, are some of whom were engaged on the former occasion.

A New Trade.—The steamer John H. Couch had in tow, on her arrival yesterday morning, a large flat boat from Kathlamet, loaded with eighty cords of hemlock bark for some one of our tanneries. The Last Day's Grace.—Collector Graves has given an important notice, in another column.

The Santiam Mines.—The numerous rich specimens lately brought down from the "White Bull" lode, by Mr. J. Woodbury, seem to have removed all doubt, and the most incredulous now appear to be satisfied as to the richness of the quartz discoveries on the Santiam. It is demonstrated almost to a certainty that there is a very rich and permanent lode extending through the mountain of gold quartz, and containing besides, native silver, as an inspection of the specimens will show. These discoveries, in connection with former discoveries of gold and silver in the "Driggs" lode, and others, in the same vicinity, warrant the opinion that the much abused Santiam mines are yet destined to attract the attention of the hardy miners and wealthy capitalists; and become a formidable rival of the much vaunted mines of eastern Oregon and Idaho, and the world renowned mines of Washoe.—Statesman.

John Brady, a well known Mississippi Secessionist, and a drunken nuisance generally, was arrested at San Francisco, recently, by the Provost Marshal while haranguing for the South and cursing the Government.

Complaints of Children.—In the case of fast-growing and scrofulous children, predisposed to curvatures and other deformities, it is often disagreeable to give a tonic without stimulants, and an alterative without irritation. For such, it would be impossible to select a preparation combining so many of the above advantages as the PERUVIAN SYRUP.

Coughs and Colds.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket, and taken as occasion requires.
Redington & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maturity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap26d1m

☞ In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence; neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.
Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain tops, distant valleys and far off islands in the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

Belvidere, Wis. Sept 16 1864.

"* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton Ill. they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.
C. A. FLAUTE."

South Warsaw, O., July 28, 1863.

"* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the House for five years with Scrofula and Erysipelas after paying the doctors over $600 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

Havemeyer Mansion, Fifty-Seventh Street, }
New York, August 2, 1864. }

"Dr. Drake, Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, Mrs. O. M. DEVOE."

"* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

"* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

"* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

"* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. B. KINGSLEY Cleveland, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c. all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

Notice.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

A Good Story for a Rainy Day

GLOVERSON, THE MORMON—A ROMANCE—BY ARTEMUS WARD

CHAPTER I

THE MORMON'S DEPARTURE

The morning on which Reginald Gloverson was to leave Great Salt Lake City with a mule train dawned beautifully

Reginald Gloverson was a young and thrifty Mormon with an interesting family of twenty young and handsome wives His unions had never been blessed with children As often as once a year he used to go to Omaha, in Nebraska, with a mule train, for goods, but although he had performed the rather perilous journey many times with entire safety, his heart was strangely sad on this particular morning and filled with gloomy forebodings

The time for his departure had arrived The high spirited mules were at the door, impatiently champing their bits The Mormon stood sadly among his weeping wives

"Dearest ones" he said, "I am singularly sad at heart, this morning, but do not let this depress you The journey is a perilous one, but—pshaw! I have always come back heretofore, and why should I fear? Besides, I know that every night, as I lay down on the broad, starlight prairie, your bright faces will come to me in my dreams, and make my slumbers sweet and gentle You Emily, with your mild blue eyes, and you, Henrietta, with your splendid black hair, and you, Nelly, with your hair so brightly, beautifully golden, and you, Mollie, with your cheeks so downy, and you, Betsy, with your wine-red lips—far more delicious, though, than any wine I ever tasted, and you, Maria, with your winsome voice, and you, Susan, with your—with your—that is to say, Susan, with your and the other thirteen of you each so good and beautiful, will come to me in sweet dreams, will you not dearestists?"

"Our own," they lovingly chimed, "we will!"

"And so farewell!" cried Reginald "Come to my arms my own!" he said, "that is, as many of you as can do it conveniently at once, for I must away"

He folded several of them to his throbbing breast and drove sadly away.

But he had not gone far when the traces of the off hind mule became unhitched Dismounting, he essayed to adjust the trace, but ere he had fairly commenced the task the mule a singularly refractory animal, snorted wildly and kicked Reginald frightfully in the stomach He arose with difficulty and tottered feebly toward his mother's house which was near by, falling dead in her yard with the remark, "Dear mother, I've come to die!"

"So I see," she said, "where's the mules?"

Alas! Reginald Gloverson could give no answer In vain the heart stricken mother threw herself upon his inanimate form, crying Oh, my son—my son! only say where the mules is, and then you may die if you want to!" In vain—in vain!

Reginald had passed on

CHAPTER II

FUNERAL TRAPPINGS

The mules were never found

Reginald's heart broken mother took the body home to her unfortunate son's widows But before her arrival she discreetly sent a boy to bust the news gently to the afflicted wives, which he did by informing them in a hoarse whisper that their "old man had gone in"

The wives felt very badly indeed

"He was devoted to me" sobbed Emily.

"And to me," said Maria

"Yes," said Emily, "he thought considerably of you, but not so much as he did of me"

"I say he did!"

"And I say he didn't!"

"He did!"

"He didn't!"

"Don't look at me with your squint eyes!"

"Don't shake your red head at me!"

"Sisters!" said the black haired Henrietta, "cease this unseemingly wrangling I, as Reginald's first wife, shall strew flowers on his grave!"

"No you won't," said Susan, "I, as his last wife, shall strew flowers on his grave It is my business to strew!"

"You shan't, so there!" said Henrietta

"You bet I will" said Susan, with a tear suffused cheek

"Well as for me," said the practical Betsey, "I am not on the strew much, but I shall ride at the head of the funeral procession!"

"Not if I've ever been introduced to myself, you won't" said the golden haired Nelly; "that's my position You bet your bonnet strings it is"

"Children," said Reginald's mother, "you must do some crying you know on the day of the funeral and how many pocket handkerchiefs will it take to go round? Betsey you and Nelly ought to make one do between you"

"I'll tear her eyes out if she perpetrates a sob on my handkerchief," said Nelly

"Dear daughters in law" said Reginald's mother, "how unseemly is this anger! Mules is five hundred dollars a span, and every identical mule my poor boy had has been gobbled up by the red man I knew when my Reginald staggered into the dooryard that he was on the die, but if I'd only thunk to ask him about them mules ere his gentle spirit took flight it would have been four thousand dollars in our pockets and no mistake. Excuse these real tears but you've never felt a parent's feelings"

"It is an oversight," sobbed Maria "Don't blame us!"

CHAPTER III

DUST TO DUST

The funeral passed off in a very pleasant manner nothing [illegible] mar the harmony [illegible] By a happy thought of Reginald's mother the wives walked to the grave twenty abreast which rendered that part of the ceremony thoroughly impartial

That night the twenty wives with heavy hearts sought their twenty respective couches But no Reginald occupied those twenty respective couches—Reginald would nevermore linger all night in blissful repose in those twenty respective couches—Reginald's head would nevermore repose on the twenty respective pillows of those twenty respective couches—never, never more

[illegible] many leagues from the [illegible] Mormon [illegible] was weeping passionately He did [illegible] he died without signifying in any respect where them mules went to

CHAPTER IV

MARRIED AGAIN

Two years are supposed to have elapsed between the third and fourth chapters of this original American romance

A manly Mormon one evening as the sun was preparing to set among the [illegible] apartment [illegible] clouds in the Western horizon—although for that matter, the sun has a right to set where it wants to and so I may add has a hen—a manly Mormon [illegible] tapping gently at the door of the mansion of the late Reginald Gloverson

The door was opened by Mrs. Susan Gloverson

"Is this the house of the widow Gloverson?" the Mormon asked

"It is" said Susan

"And how many is there of she?" inquired the Mormon

"There is about twenty of her, including me" courteously returned the fair Susan

"Can I see her?"

"You can!"

"Madam," he softly said addressing the twenty disconsolate widows "I have seen part of you before! And although I have already twenty five wives, whom I respect and tenderly care for, I can truly say that I never felt love's holy thrill till I saw thee! Be mine—be mine!" he enthusiastically cried, "and we will show the world a striking illustration of the beauty and truth of the noble lines only a good deal more so—

Twenty one souls with but a single thought
Twenty one hearts that beat as one

They were united, they were!

Gentle reader, does not the moral of this romance show that—does it not, in fact, show that however many there may be of a young widow woman or rather does it not show that whatever number of persons one woman may consist of—well never mind what it shows Only this writing Mormon romances is confusing to the intellect You try and see

THE FRENCH IN COCHIN CHINA — The Moniteur de la Flotte publishes a letter from its private correspondent at Saigon, in Cochin China of March 1st Tranquility continued to prevail in the French colony, taxes were being collected without difficulty, the last crop of rice was magnificent and the natives were extensively occupied with the sale of the produce of their farms The administration was solidly established, and the receipts of the colony exceeded the expenditure Priests and foreign missionaries were expected from France to preach the Gospel throughout Cochin China A dock had been constructed at Saigon, capable of receiving large gunboats One gunboat had been completed there and was to be launched toward the middle of March A floating dock was likewise in progress of construction A service of tugboats had been organized on the river Saigon, The various works to be executed in the town of Saigon, at the expense of the French Government, during the present year are estimated at upwards of 1,000,000 francs It is proposed to execute these works by contract, and to invite contractors at Hongkong and Singapore to bid for them
